Part B for March 1933

SUBJECT.

Leave to Mr. N. Rama Rao Director of Industries & Commerce & Consequential arrangements.

Submitted to His Highness.

(1) I beg to state for the gracious information of His Highness that orders have issued retiring Mr. N. Rama Rao, Director of Industries and Commerce, with effect from about the end of May 1933. As, however, it is proposed to give him two months' leave prior to retirement, the place of Director of Industries and Commerce falls vacant from the beginning of April. It is proposed with the concurrence of the Members of Council to appoint Mr. A. V. Ramanathan, Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, as Director of Industries and Commerce. I request that His Highness may be graciously pleased to approve of this arrangement.

H. I, para 4

The salary of the post of Director of Sc was fixed at Rs 1400 in the G.O. re-organizing the Dept. d. 24.10.1922. In 1926, the status of the post was reduced and it was ordered that an officer appointed as Director would draw his grade pay + Rs 100 D.A. This came into effect in Jan. 1927 when Mr. C. Rangnatha Rao Saheb was appointed Director. It is this general standing order that is still in force, subsequent changes in emoluments of incumbents being treated as personal.

(a) The duty allowance of Rs 100 attached to the post was enhanced to Rs 200 on the representation of Mr. C. R. Rao Saheb that the duties of the post had been materially enhanced by the transfer of the direction & control of the Sericultural Dept, additional work connected with the administration of the Workmen's Compensation Regulation, Factories Regulation etc. This enhanced D.A. was however made personal to Mr C. R. Rao Saheb.

Leave to Mr N. Rama Rao & Consequential Arrangements

Serial No.

Submitted with two drafts (a Notn + a G.O.) for approval or other orders.

CPR 3/3

The following points are submitted in this Connection –

(1) Kind of leave. Two months leave has been sanctioned, but the nature of the leave has not been expressly specified. Mr. N. Rama Rao has earned about a month's leave for service rendered after superannuation. Subj. to approval, the whole period of two months is proposed as "Privilege leave".

(2) Extension of service by a few days.

Mr. Rama Rao's term of extension expires on 28th May 1933 evening. As 2 m. leave from 1.4.33 is granted, his service also has to be technically extended up to 31.5.33 i.e. by 3 days.

(3) Lien on post of Director, IdC. . Mr. A.V. Ramanathan is proposed to be treated as offg. Director during the leave period of Mr. Rama Rao so that the latter may continue to have a lien on the post of Director. From 1.6.33 Mr. Ramanathan will be permanent Director.
